Season Tickets 2016 / 2017

You Can Save Money On Your Season Ticket With Our Early Bird Offer

Season tickets for the 2016 / 17 campaign are now on sale from the club's main ticket office and we are offering our supporters a reduction on price if purchased before the end of the current season.

The early bird offer will end at 5pm on Monday 9th May, before we then return to our current prices. We have once again frozen our pricing structure across all of our age categories.

An adult season ticket for all areas of the Alexandra Stadium will cost just £280, if purchased before the first deadline, thus making us one of the cheapest season tickets in the Football League. Our most loyal adult fans are asked to pay £12.17 per match if they take up our early bird offer.

After listening to feedback from supporters, the club have introduced only three price brackets for the Gresty Road End and the Family Stand sections of the Alexandra Stadium.

Therefore, the maximum price for an adult season ticket for either of those two stands will be restricted to £300 throughout the season. If purchased before the end of the current season, your seat will cost you the new price of £280.

Our family season ticket has proved immensely popular and this will continue throughout all areas of the Alexandra Stadium. This allows any child under the age of 11 to enjoy a FREE season ticket if they are accompanied by an adult season ticket holder.

Families are reminded that if they choose to have their season ticket seats in the Family Stand then they are entitled to use the newly refurbished family lounge, which is located above the family section. Any additional Under-11 season tickets are now priced at the very competitive £44, which works out at just £1.91 per match!

Our current season ticket holders have until Thursday 30th June to reserve their seat. The club is also offering fans a new phased payment plan over a four month or ten month period.

Season ticket holders will receive priority booking on all FA Cup, League Cup and Football League Trophy matches and will continue to receive 10% on all shop purchases and discount on all away coach travel.

Everyone at Crewe Alexandra would like to thank all our season ticket holders for their fantastic support over what has been a difficult campaign.
